

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

FRANKLIN

State Inspector Visits Grange—$700 Raised For Building Fund—Illustrated Lecture at Church.

Franklin grange held its meeting on Friday evening in the town hall. Louis G. Tolles of Southington, state inspector, was present. Report of the committee on the building fund was given, seven hundred dollars being raised. The subjects for the lecture were "When and How to Buy Seed," by Ray Beckwith, was listened to with interest. Also, "When to Prune and Spray For San Jose Scale, What to Use, For Spray and How to Prepare It," by Huntington Lathrop. Mrs. Luther Holton read a short article on the nourishment contained in potatoes. A talk by Inspector Louis G. Tolles of Southington, state inspector, was given. The lecture was illustrated and included several suggestions for the good of the grange. Worthy Master Charles B. Davis of Bzrah grange was present. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harshboun were calling on friends in Yantic one day the past week.

Mrs. Kahn to Entertain. Mrs. George Kahn will entertain friends from the Fitchville Baptist church and surrounding towns at her home on Tuesday evening of next week.

A flock of wild geese was seen by Mrs. William Weaver one day this week. Milton Beckwith and Ernest Smith have purchased automobiles. Master Huntington Robinson who operated upon for pneumonia Monday morning is getting along well. Roy Smith of Storrs has been a recent visitor in town.

Illustrated Lecture. The illustrated lecture at the Congregational church Sunday evening will be on Southern Italy, Naples, and Pompeii. Miss Edith N. Gager is spending a few days in New London. Mrs. Myron Smith and Miss Blanche Smith of Bzrah attended church in Franklin Sunday.

The subject for the morning service at the Franklin Congregational church will be "The Triumphal Entry."

GLASCO

H. L. Burton Breaks Collar Bone—Belly Finished—Birthdays Surprised.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clark attended the funeral services of Mrs. William B. Clark Friday at 1 p. m. Burial was in Kennedy's cemetery.

Break Collar Bone. H. L. Burton was taken by Mr. Green in his automobile to Dr. J. B. Sweet's Sunday evening with a broken collar bone. The accident happened in the house of the overturning of a chair in which he was sitting.

Bell in Place. Work on the belfry of the church has progressed rapidly the past week, the bell being in place. It is the intention of the workmen to have the work done by today (Saturday).

Miss W. F. Green returned to her home in Hartford Saturday. Ray Button and George Whipple spent the past week in New York.

Given Surprise Party. The young people of the place gave Fred Turner a surprise Saturday evening. The time passed quickly playing games and in a social hour. Refreshments were served the guests by Mrs. Palmer assisted by the young ladies.

Was Host's Birthday. Mrs. Gustafson very pleasantly entertained the Ladies' Aid society on Wednesday afternoon. It was also the birthday of Mr. Gustafson and R. H. Young, who were both present. Also J. G. Bill and Rev. John Thompson. Miss Lillian Luther is at her home after being out of the hospital a week after an operation for appendicitis.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Deacon Joseph C. Tanner died Saturday, March 20, and the funeral was held Thursday at his home. Rev. William J. Reynolds officiated. The Grange burial service was conducted at the grave.

Mrs. William B. Clark died Sunday, March 21. The funeral was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Perkins, Friday. Rev. W. J. Reynolds conducted the service.

School closed early Thursday and Friday to give teachers and pupils an opportunity to attend the funerals. The winter term of school closed Friday for a vacation of one week. Roy and Henry Congdon attended school every day this term.

GRISWOLD

Harold and Bertha Geer attended the Academy reception in Norwich recently.

Mrs. Charles Armstrong has been visiting at her home in Hopeville. Mrs. Fred G. Smith of Chester, N. H., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Robie the first of the week. Mrs. Charles Armstrong and Mrs. Lewis Gill recently visited their sister, Mrs. Henry of Springfield, Mass. About 50 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of W. C. Terry's Tuesday evening and gave Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes a pleasant surprise.

BOZRAH

Rev. B. D. Remington and Mrs. Remington of Colchester spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, returning home in the evening.

Miss Maude Lathrop closed her school Friday for the Easter vacation. Miss Marie Pendleton has returned to her home after spending a week with relatives on Lathrop Hill. The peeping frogs were heard on Thursday evening.

HALLVILLE

Albert Lamphere of Norwich was called here a few days since. Mr. and Mrs. George Eccleston, of Clark's Falls, were dinner guests of Mrs. Charles Eccleston, Sunday. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, returning home in the evening. Miss Esther Brown is spending a few days with her mother in Partridgeville. Mrs. Daniel Little was a business caller in Norwich Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Eccleston and daughters, Mrs. Noyes Main, Wequetequock, Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr., of this place, were visitors in Norwich Wednesday.

GOSHEN

Birthdays Surprise Party and Gift for Deacon J. Y. Thomas.

A birthday surprise party was given to Deacon James Y. Thomas on his sixtieth birthday Tuesday evening. A few minutes after 8 o'clock he was called to the door by a gentle knock and about eight friends came waiting in. After a very pleasant social time supper was served. After supper William H. Geer, acting as toastmaster, with fitting words introduced the following speakers: Rev. John H. Knott, W. G. Thomas, Miss Annie Gillette, Representative J. A. Thomas, E. Jones, Mrs. E. B. York, Mrs. J. E. Knott, A. G. Kneeland, W. T. Curry. A poem written for the occasion by Mrs. William H. Geer was read by Mrs. George W. Thomas. A few moments afterwards a large and handsome rocking chair was brought in and presented to Mr. Thomas. The presentation was made by Rev. John H. Knott, in behalf of those present. Mr. Thomas cordially acknowledged the beautiful gift.

Saved Farm Buildings. A farmer one day recently noted that there was a bad brush fire driven by a brisk northwest wind at a rapid rate toward his farm buildings. He thought quickly what best to do, as he was alone and had not time to call for help. He hitched his pair of horses to the plow and quickly plowed some furrows in the open field, and in this way saved his buildings. The fire was runaway one, that had gotten beyond the control of a neighbor, who was burning brush.

General News. The big blaze of the burning of the dye works at Uncasville was noted here Tuesday evening. A half hundred blackbirds have already greeted us in chorus songs of jubilee. A flock of twenty quail has stayed near the farmhouse all winter with numbers still unbroken. The lusty honk of wild geese as they are seen passing northward is a reminder that they have fared well during their stay south. Everett Chappell has been visiting friends in Connecticut. Since November 1914, J. A. Randall has butchered 27 fat hogs for himself and neighbors, the porkers varying in weight from 150 to 300 pounds.

J. Stark who has been laid up with inflammatory rheumatism, is able to get out again on pleasant days.

PENDLETON HILL

New Bungalow—Brush Fire Near E. Coon's.

Dr. C. Wesley Hale of Springfield, Mass., and Pendleton Hill, spent Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Maine. Malcom Jones, who has taken the contract to erect a bungalow for Messrs. Clifford and Irving Thompson, has the structure framed and covered.

Called to Fight Fire. Volunteers were called for to fight a fire in the neighborhood of Elmer Jones, Thursday. Men from Voluntary came to assist in subduing the flames. At the same time there was a large fire east of Oscar Burck's which was fought by Laurel Glen men.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks, of Lawrence, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown of Bradford, R. I., were guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson Tuesday.

Mrs. James M. Cook gave a most enjoyable surprise party for her son, Deacon, to celebrate his birthday. About twenty were present.

Clarence Edwin Maine has been appointed deputy fire warden in this part of the town to celebrate his birthday.

Auction Wednesday. Several attended the auction at Kneeland Chapman's Wednesday. Martin O. Chapman is executor of this estate.

Supervisor Evans and Rev. Mr. Drury of North Stonington village were callers at the Hill school this week.

LISBON

Rev. J. W. Payne's sermon Sunday morning was from Psalm 40: 6, his subject being "The Attuned Ear."

Sunday evening there was a Panny Crosby memorial service. A flock of wild geese was heard flying northward Tuesday night.

Denison Turner is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently.

Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tillingshaast entertained relatives and friends from Norwich recently. Denison Turner is ill at his home in Norwich recently.

Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently. Mrs. William B. Clark is ill at his home in Norwich recently.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery are in Bagville for a few days. A number attended the auction at the Kneeland Chapman farm. Mrs. Cassius Collins is expected home from the hospital this week. E. Fowler was in Norwich Wednesday.

YAWBUX VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. William Partello are moving from the Daniel Frink farm to the Isaac Main farm. Mrs. Lew was a recent visitor at Westerly. Samuel P. Maine has gone to Ledyard, where he will be employed during the summer.

SALEM

Ladies' Aid Society Meets—The Late Mrs. J. C. G. Platt a Subscriber to Church Repair Fund.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the home in the Misses Hurlbut Thursday afternoon. Rev. R. H. Crawford and Mr. Bek of New Britain motored to town last Thursday to note the progress being made on the work of laying a new foundation under the Congregational church.

Mr. Smith, superintendent of the Boys' club in Colchester, was a visitor in town Thursday. The School Inspector Herbert O. Clough of Deep River and Supervisor John A. Young of Colchester visited schools in town Thursday.

Mrs. Ora Clark was the guest of her brother, Thomas Clark, in Colchester, Saturday.

The Late Frederick P. Ladd. Frederick P. Ladd, 88, who died at his home in Ledyard (Bozrah), was for many years a resident of town. He was a member of the Congregational church in the general assembly. He was active in church work and when he belonged was close by and his wife attended services at the Congregational church.

Leave for Bethlehem. Elmer M. Chadwick, inspector of state road work, accompanied by Arthur Kingsley, left town Monday for Bethlehem, where they will resume work suspended the latter part of December on account of severe winter weather.

Rev. R. H. Crawford preached a most impressive sermon on Sunday morning, it being the fourth in a series of Christ's Table Talks. The theme was Love, Hardship and Criticism.

The Sunday school session was in charge of Assistant Superintendent Mrs. Florence Murray.

Recent contributions to the building and repair funds are from Donald G. Mitchell of New London, $10; Mrs. J. C. Platt, New London, $10; Miss C. E. W. of New Haven, $5; Atwood Collins of Hartford, $5; Hartford, $2; Misses Jennie and Theodora Hurlbut, $2; Lawrence E. Spencer, $2.

While in town this week Rev. Mr. Crawford was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Clark.

At last the voice of the peep frog is heard in the land. Sure harbinger of spring. Schools in town closed Friday for the spring vacation. They will reopen Monday, April 4.

HAMBURG

Burial of Granville Ely—Charles Chapell ill.

Lennie and Joe Rand were called to Milford the first of the week by the illness of their mother, Mrs. Rathbun. Mrs. Carmen Davis was the guest of Mrs. Haines last Sunday.

Miss Ora Harding spent Sunday with Miss Woods at her home in New London.

The body of Granville Ely, aged 87, and a native of this place, was brought here from Tarrytown, N. Y., last week for burial in the Ely cemetery.

The mumps are the last thing to strike town, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bogue being taken with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Daniels spent Sunday with relatives in New Haven. The S. S. C. met last week with Miss Marjorie.

Mr. and Mrs. Crook and daughter were Deep River visitors over Sunday. Harry Mathews has moved his family back to Hamburg and will work for Ingalls Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Slison of Deep River are in town this week. Charles Chapell is at his home in Old Hamburg, being obliged to leave the company with which he was playing on account of illness.

LEONARD BRIDGE

J. Zatorsky of New York has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Louis Himelestein.

Mrs. Kate and son have moved back to the Chamberlain farm after spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Sam Berkowitz.

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. O. Mead attended the prayer meeting at Liberty Hill Wednesday evening.

Judge and Mrs. Albert G. Kneeland, Mr. Otto and Mrs. Otto, and daughter, Miss Lavinia P. Kneeland, David Walsh, Elmer N. Geer and Clarence Geer were among those who were present at the birthday surprise party given Deacon James Y. Thomas in Goshen Tuesday night.

Mrs. Amos Wheeler is ill with pneumonia. A fire which started in Sam Berkowitz's pasture last Friday afternoon burned over land of Kenneth L. Cummings, Mrs. Julia Geer and Bonnie E. York, doing quite an amount of damage and requiring the aid of several men for some time to subdue the blaze.

FITCHVILLE

Local Baptist Pastor to Exchange Pulpits With Colchester Pastor.

Tomorrow (Sunday) Rev. G. Elmer Lamphere, pastor of the Fitchville Baptist church, will exchange pulpits with Rev. B. D. Remington of Colchester at both morning and evening services. Rev. Mr. Remington was formerly acting pastor of the Fitchville church and made many friends during his services here.

Mrs. W. N. Chappell is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Powers, of Chesterfield.

The members of the Fitchville Baptist church are to give a supper at the home of Mr. John George Kahn in Franklin next week.

CHESTERFIELD

Mrs. Jennie Adams of Montville called on her father, John Bogue, the first of the week. Mrs. Addie Rogers and daughter of New London spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith at Sunset cottage.

The dance at Kaplan's hall Tuesday evening was well attended. People from East Lyme and Salem were present.

Mrs. Henry Smith spent a day the first of the week with Mrs. Jeanette Phillips. Schools here closed Friday for their Easter vacation.

H. D. Hathaway recently sold his place to foreign people from New York.

Mrs. Florence Powers and brother, Maurice, were callers in East Lyme Wednesday.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Thirty-six Attend Meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society—Personals.

Mrs. T. H. Ward, Mrs. Albert Ward and son Herbert were Norwich visitors Wednesday.

Thirty-six in Attendance. The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday with Mrs. Fred H. Race. Recitations by Mrs. George Ladd and Miss Ella M. Rockwood gave pleasure. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. There was an attendance of 36.

Mrs. Grace Peckham and Mrs. Frank Case were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Thoroughbred. Mrs. Peckham and Mrs. Henry Ormsby of Willimantic are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Clarke.

Mrs. A. T. Browning and daughter Mrs. Leavens are spending the week in Boston.

Mrs. Charles Crandall and daughter Mrs. South Windham were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Crandall.

Guest from Norwich. Mrs. Annie Sherman of Norwich has returned home after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Clark. Mrs. Imogene Arnold of Willimantic spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield and son of South Windham were callers on Mrs. F. H. Clarke Sunday.

Mrs. A. T. Browning and daughter Mrs. Leavens attended the funeral of Frank Potter in Norwich Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Rockwood, Mrs. Fred H. Race, Mrs. A. T. Browning, Mrs. Charles Grant and Mrs. Fred Armstrong attended the grange meeting in Willimantic Saturday.

Mrs. Fred H. Clarke and Miss Myrtle Clark spent Saturday with Mrs. Arthur Clark. Mrs. Clark is the wife of Mr. Clark, who is now in the service of the U. S. C. E. in the evening was under the leadership of LeRoy S. Bailey. The pastor gave an interesting and instructive talk on the topic, "Favorite Books of the Bible."

Additional Contributions. Recent contributions to the building and repair funds are from Donald G. Mitchell of New London, $10; Mrs. J. C. Platt, New London, $10; Miss C. E. W. of New Haven, $5; Atwood Collins of Hartford, $5; Hartford, $2; Misses Jennie and Theodora Hurlbut, $2; Lawrence E. Spencer, $2.

While in town this week Rev. Mr. Crawford was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Clark.

At last the voice of the peep frog is heard in the land. Sure harbinger of spring. Schools in town closed Friday for the spring vacation. They will reopen Monday, April 4.

LEDYARD

Appraisers Appointed on Satterlee Estate—Blair Birch Mill Has 400 Tons on Hand—Roll Call at Congregational Church Tomorrow.

George W. Palmer arrived home Friday from Long Island, where he had been on a business trip. The probate court has appointed Noves B. Alyn and Henry W. Hurlbut, both of Gales Ferry, appraisers on the estate of Ellen S. Satterlee, late of Ledyard.

D. Taylor and George Bogue were Sunday callers on Mrs. William Welles of Old Mystic.

Has Enough Brush. The black birch mill which is situated near Stoddard's wharf, and which has been in operation since last winter, paying $4 a ton for the same, delivered, has refused to take any more brush, having over 400 tons on hand. This brush will be ground up and made into oil. The mill does not run through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogue were Sunday callers on Mrs. William Welles of Old Mystic.

New Foreman from Willimantic. Nathan Williams of Vermont, who owns the Dwight Gallup farm, has secured the services of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Williams, who will be Mr. Williams' foreman.

Oliver Avery and family, the former being Mr. Williams' foreman for the past two years, have moved into Deacon Isaac Perkins' house. Mr. Barrett went to New York and returned with a valuable horse, bringing it up on the Norwich coast.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage Wednesday and did work for the social and supper which will be held next week. A good number were present.

Congregational Roll Call. The Ledyard Congregational church has called for a roll call to be held in the church Sunday morning after the Sunday school. A basket lunch will be served.

Mrs. Walter Parmelee of Colchester is expected today (Saturday) to make a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Taylor.

LEBANON

Six Months' Whist Awards Made—Auction Well Attended—Supper at Baptist Chapel.

A whist party was held Friday evening at the Baptist chapel. The following prizes were awarded: Ladies—First, Geneva Stark; second, Mrs. Clement Fowler. Gentlemen—First, B. J. Blakeslee; second, Frank Rockwood. Consolation awards—Mrs. Myron Peckham and Amos Little. The six months' prizes were given as follows: Ladies—First, Mrs. Otto Fritz; second, Gladys Hewitt. Gentlemen—First, Carl Hatten; second, Ralph Blakeslee. Consolation prizes—Alice Blakeslee and Royell Wilcox.

Many at Auction. The auction of B. P. Burgess of Kick Hill, with Frank Noyes auctioneer, was well attended. Things sold at a good price. The house was sold for $1000. Charles Abell of New Britain was at his home here over Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Hobbs of Northampton, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. B. Royall.

George Greene of New London was visiting friends in town a few days this week.

Miss Bertha Perry, who has been spending the winter in Washington, is at home.

Supper and Entertainment. A chicken pie supper was served in the chapel by the ladies of the Baptist church March 17. A short entertainment of songs and readings was given. The sum of $21.50 was added to the treasury.

The Mission circle met Wednesday with Mrs. J. P. Abel.

Mrs. A. Boothby is visiting her son at Woodmont. Mrs. Mary A. Williams is spending a few days in Brooklyn, N. Y.

OLD MYSTIC

Fourth Quarterly Conference—Methodist United Workers Hold Annual Meeting—Thomas J. Leavens Dead.

Rev. George G. Scrivenor, district superintendent of Norwich, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday morning and evening. On Saturday evening he conducted the fourth quarterly conference in the parish house at 8 o'clock. Reports were read and committees appointed.

United Workers' Officers. The Methodist United Workers held the annual business meeting Wednesday afternoon in the parish house. Mrs. F. Alonzo Chapman resigned as president of the society after eighteen months' faithful service. She was tendered a vote of thanks by the society in appreciation of her services. The following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: President, Mrs. Herman Main; vice president, Mrs. Prentice A. Williams (re-elected); secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Desley (re-elected); directors, Miss Calley (re-elected); Mrs. T. Henry Johnson; Mrs. Eliza C. Davis; Mrs. Sidney Slawick. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Death of Thomas J. Leavens. Word was received here the past week of the death of Thomas J. Leavens, of Troy, N. Y., who was recently visited here. He was a brother to the first wife of Charles G. E. Leavens, of this place. Thomas J. Leavens, a former well known retail groceryman of Lansingburgh, died yesterday at his residence, 104 Fourth avenue, after a long illness. He was born in Melrose and previous to moving to Lansingburgh was employed in Melrose. Mr. Leavens was a member of the National Custom Laundry in Troy and before his illness was connected with the National Cash Register Co., being in the state of New York one of the established of the register company's trade in the east. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Lansingburgh. His wife, Mrs. Helen M. Leavens, two daughters, Miss Elizabeth J. and Miss Helen L. Leavens, and two sons, Thomas J. and Austin Miller Leavens, survive.

Had Picnic Lunch. The women of the Baptist church held an all day session Wednesday at the parish house. A picnic lunch was served at noon.

Easter Exercise. The Baptist Sunday school is arranging for a special service Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Williams has moved to Mystic.

Miss Harriet Ralvey of New York is in the guest of Misses Ada and Sarah Kennard.

Work is being rushed on Lawrence Williams' new bungalow at Quoque. The following members of the Epworth League of the Old Mystic Methodist church attended as guests the anniversary celebration of the Epworth League of the Mystic Methodist church held Monday evening in the church: Horace O. Williams, Mrs. Myron Peckham, Mrs. Joseph Desley, Mrs. Frederick A. Barnes, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Miss Charlotte Williams, Mrs. Nancy Avery, Mrs. Fay Johnson, Miss Della Williams, Miss Esther Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams, John O. S. Williams, Clifford Avery, Charles Barnes, Paul B. Lamphere.

Woodland Fire. Another wood fire was started in the vicinity of Porters Rocks, Monday afternoon. The fire, which was again in danger. Fire Warden John R. Haley of Centre Groton and Deputy Fire Warden C. Edwin Stepien were both called out and the fire was put out before great damage was done.

GARDNER LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fish Moving from Norwich—New Farm Manager.

Mrs. Fred Beebe of Hadlyme and Mrs. George Adams of Meriden, the formerly Miss Louisa Martin of Hamburg, spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Latimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Church of Presbury were week end visitors at W. W. Haines'.

Mrs. S. A. Dolbear was a week end guest of relatives in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fish, former residents of this place, have moved from Norwich to the house at Leffingwell, owned by Mrs. Katie Deitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolbear of Norwich were callers at S. A. Dolbear's Sunday.

Miss Robby Boynton and Miss Margaret Hickey, members of the Montville Athletic club, walked from Palmetown to Hartford, Sunday. Leaving Palmetown at 4 a. m., arrived at Hartford at 8.30 a. m., staying a while. They left Colchester at 9.50 a. m., arriving at Hartford at 4.30 p. m. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Latimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Church of Presbury were week end visitors at W. W. Haines'.

Mrs. S. A. Dolbear was a week end guest of relatives in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fish, former residents of this place, have moved from Norwich to the house at Leffingwell, owned by Mrs. Katie Deitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolbear of Norwich were callers at S. A. Dolbear's Sunday.

Miss Robby Boynton and Miss Margaret Hickey, members of the Montville Athletic club, walked from Palmetown to Hartford, Sunday. Leaving Palmetown at 4 a. m., arrived at Hartford at 8.30 a. m., staying a while. They left Colchester at 9.50 a. m., arriving at Hartford at 4.30 p. m. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Latimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Church of Presbury were week end visitors at W. W. Haines'.

Mrs. S. A. Dolbear was a week end guest of relatives in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fish, former residents of this place, have moved from Norwich to the house at Leffingwell, owned by Mrs. Katie Deitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolbear of Norwich were callers at S. A. Dolbear's Sunday.

Miss Robby Boynton and Miss Margaret Hickey, members of the Montville Athletic club, walked from Palmetown to Hartford, Sunday. Leaving Palmetown at 4 a. m., arrived at Hartford at 8.30 a. m., staying a while. They left Colchester at 9.50 a. m., arriving at Hartford at 4.30 p. m. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Latimer.